Without a doubt it has become very busy out there, and we are already hearing of many parks filling up early each day. Having just travelled the Bruce Highway from Cairns going south, the volume of traffic has been huge. Sadly still too many frustrated, speedy drivers (mostly non-RV'ers) doing dangerous manoeuvres and passing in dangerous areas. Please take care, stay safe and take your time. Give the truckies the room whenever you can - they keep the country ticking.

Did you know that Kui Parks has 20 parks in Queensland to choose from. Having visited nearly all of them in the past few weeks, I can guarantee they are ready to welcome you. Please book ahead whenever you can as many are already being stretched to the limit with bookings. If you want to know how to get all the details on all the Queensland Parks go to our website. www.kuiparks.com.au, and in the search function click the state under region and select other criteria to find a map of all parks and a full page of information on each park

Every park profile will give you a host of information including description of town and region, things to do, full contact details, photos giving you a look into the park, directions to the park, rates and so much more.

For many, a trip to the Cape is a major bucket list item. If you are wondering what you can do with your rig while you want to take that trip north, Kui Parks has some options. Store your van at NO CHARGE at Mt Carbine Caravan Park. Your hosts only ask for your commitment for a couple of nights stay in their park. Alternatively you can store your van at Trinity Plains Tourist Park for just $30 a week. For a small extra fee, you can even have your fridge connected to power while you are away.

If you are a frequent user of WikiCamps, here are some quick and easy steps to take to find all Kui Parks with one simple change in your Filter Settings:

1. Open The Wiki Camps App
2. In top Left corner next to Search click on the Filter button
3. Scroll down the page to Name Filter
4. Type in the box Kui Parks
5. Scroll down the page to the bottom right you will see Apply (#)
6. Click the Apply button, and you are all done
7. When now enter Kui Parks in the Filter, the list of nearest parks will appear with the map. In fact if you open map you will see all the parks open on one map - stretch the map and you will see all parks in Australia

Are you taking advantage of our very popular Kui Parks Frequent Stayer Program which continues to gain popularity. Now you can earn one punch on the card per night, giving you more chances to win. So be sure you give your card to the park to get punched. If you do not have a card ask for one at the park you are visiting!

Every month we give away 8 x $50 vouchers that can be redeemed at a Kui Park.

For more information why not visit the Kui Parks Frequent Stayer Program page kuiparks.com.au/frequent-stayer-program
